PERSONS CONNECTED TO THE CONTRACT

1. The policyholder is a person or a legal entity who has concluded an insurance contract with If P&C Insurance AS (hereinafter 'If').
2. The insured person or the insured is a person whose health, items, expenses or financial obligations are insured. The permanent residence of the insured must be in Estonia. The insured is indicated on the policy. The policyholder must introduce the terms and conditions of the insurance contract to the insured.

TRIP

3. A trip is the insured's travelling from Estonia to another country with the aim of staying there temporarily. The beginning of the trip is the leaving of the insured from their place of residence or work in Estonia with the aim of going on a trip. Trips inside Estonia shall not be insured.
4. If shall conclude travel insurance only for the trips that start from Estonia. If a trip does not start from Estonia, please agree on it with If separately. The agreement is indicated on the policy.
5. If the insured has left Estonia already before the conclusion of the insurance contract, the policyholder is required to inform If thereof upon the conclusion of the contract.
6. If the insured has been outside Estonia for longer than a year, the travel insurance is concluded only by special agreement.

INSURANCE VALIDITY PERIOD

7. Insurance shall be valid for the insurance events that occur during the trip that takes place during the insurance period.
8. Insurance cover for the cancellation of the trip is additionally valid even before the beginning of the insurance period, but in case of the cover for the cancellation of the trip, a waiting period of three days from the date of formalising the policy with the travel interruption insurance is applied. The insurance cover is not valid until the end of the waiting period.
EXAMPLE. If prepares the policy on 1 May. The cover for the cancellation of the trip is valid from 4 May at 00:00.
9. Insurance period shall not be shorter than the duration of the trip, unless agreed differently.
10. Insurance is not valid for the events that occurred after the end of the insurance period.

EXTENDING THE INSURANCE PERIOD BY 48 HOURS

11. If as a result of travel interruption insurance event the insured is still in a foreign country at the end of the insurance period, the insurance period is extended by 48 hours, provided that the travel interruption insurance is indicated on the policy.

MULTI-TRIP INSURANCE

12. A multi-trip insurance can be chosen. In case of multi-trip insurance, several trips can be made during the insurance period, but the duration of one trip shall not exceed the number of days indicated on the policy. The days are counted from the first day of the trip. If the trip is longer than indicated on the policy, insurance shall not be valid for the days exceeded.

INSURANCE VALIDITY AREA

13. Insurance validity area is the territory indicated on the policy where the insurance is valid.
14. Insurance (except property at home insurance and travel interruption insurance in cases set out in the insurance terms and conditions) is not valid in Estonia or in the state of permanent residence of the insured.

Insurance covers

15. All situations that may occur during a trip are not covered with travel insurance. Your travel insurance contract includes only the insurance covers that are indicated on the insurance policy.

- 17.1. war, armed conflict, terrorism, mass disorder or any other similar extensive violation of public order;
 - 17.2. natural disaster;
 - 17.3. epidemic.

18. This insurance cover is valid only if the trip had already started by the time of occurrence of the event set out in Articles 17.1. – 17.3 and the insurance event occurred within up to 14 days after the occurrence of the event set out in the previous article.

MEDICAL TREATMENT EXPENSES AND PRESCRIPTION MEDICINAL PRODUCT

19. If shall indemnify the costs incurred during a trip as a result of medical assistance insurance event on prescription medicines and medical treatment costs if they have been incurred within 60 days from the insurance event.

DENTAL CARE

20. In case of medical assistance insurance event If shall indemnify the cost of treatment of an unexpected toothache, including medicine with the indemnity limit of up to €500 only for the following procedures:

- 20.1. opening of the source of inflammation;
- 20.2. cleaning of the root canal;
- 20.3. temporary filling;
- 20.4. pulling of tooth;
- 20.5. costs of emergency dental care required as a result of an accident (e.g. falling).

21. If shall not indemnify planned dental care.

EXPECTING MOTHER

22. In case of medical assistance insurance event, If shall indemnify cost of emergency medical assistance required for unexpected complications during the first 27 weeks of pregnancy. An unexpected pregnancy complication shall be premature birth during the 27th week of pregnancy.

23. If pregnancy has lasted for more than 27 weeks, If shall not indemnify costs arising from pregnancy complications, including giving birth.

24. If shall not indemnify costs arising from giving birth, related complications, puerperium treatment or care, except in cases set out in Article 22. The exclusion applies to costs related to the mother as well as the child.

TRAVEL COMPANION STAYING WITH THE INSURED

25. In case of medical assistance insurance, If shall indemnify additional reasonable accommodation costs in a foreign country and the transport costs for returning to Estonia of one travel companion who stays with the insured who has fallen ill, sustained an injury or died, or those of the minor children of the ill or injured insured, if it is unavoidable (e.g. a mother stays with her child). The costs are indemnified from the insured's medical assistance sum insured.

26. If shall not indemnify the transportation and accommodation costs of the travel companion accompanying the insured to the extent that they should have incurred if the insurance event had not occurred.
27. If shall not indemnify the cost of travelling to the insured, the travel costs (transport, accommodation etc.) of the persons participating in the funeral or cremation of the insured nor the cost of the wake.

PROSTHETICS, GLASSES, HEARING AIDS, CRUTCHES AND WHEELCHAIR

28. If shall indemnify the cost of repairs of or purchasing new prosthetics, hearing aids or glasses broken as a result of the medical assistance insurance event to the extent of up to €100 per each insurance event.
29. If shall indemnify the cost of purchasing crutches and renting a wheelchair etc. in a foreign country that are needed as a result of the medical assistance insurance event.

DEATH OF THE INSURED

30. In case of medical assistance insurance, If shall indemnify:
- 30.1. the cost of burial or cremation of the insured in a foreign country;
- 30.2. the cost of bringing the body of the insured to Estonia.
31. If must be called to organise burial or cremation of the insured in a foreign country.

TRANSPORT COSTS

32. In case of medical assistance insurance, If shall indemnify:
- 32.1. the insured's transport costs for medical assistance at the destination of the trip or in the transit country;
- 32.2. the cost of bringing the insured who is seriously ill or injured to Estonia. The doctor who is approved by If shall decide if and when bringing the insured to Estonia is possible and necessary and shall determine the means of transportation for that.
33. If must be called to organise the bringing of the insured to Estonia.

MEDICAL DOCUMENTS

34. Based on the medical assistance insurance, If shall indemnify formalising, copying and sending of medical documents if it is necessary for loss adjustment. If shall not indemnify accommodation and transport costs related to obtaining the documents.

ACTIONS IN CASE OF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE INSURANCE EVENT

35. If in case of an insurance event the insured requires medical assistance that is not hospitalisation, he or she may go directly to a licenced medical institution. If the insured is unsure which medical institution he or she should go to, they may call If to arrange the treatment.
36. If in case of an insurance event the insured requires hospitalisation, he or she must immediately call If.
37. In case of medical assistance insurance event, If shall organise the insured's hospitalisation, bringing back to Estonia, burial or cremation in a foreign country. If shall indemnify the cost of the aforementioned services only if they have been previously approved by If.

EXCLUSIONS IN THE EVENT OF PREMATURE RETURN OF THE INSURED TO ESTONIA

38. If shall not indemnify the cost of returning to Estonia of the insured returned from the trip on their own initiative without prior approval from If. Furthermore, If shall not indemnify the cost of returning to Estonia if the insured ignored instructions given by If or doctor upon returning to Estonia.
39. If a doctor approved by If considers bringing to Estonia possible, but the insured who is ill or injured refuses, If shall not indemnify any further costs.
40. If a doctor approved by If does not consider bringing to Estonia medically justified, If shall not indemnify the cost of bringing to Estonia.

EVIDENCE IN MEDICAL ASSISTANCE INSURANCE EVENT

 - 50.12. items the bringing of which to Estonia is illegal.

NB! Please be sure to read the exclusions.

SAFETY REQUIREMENTS FOR THE STORAGE OF LUGGAGE

- 51. Luggage must be stored in a locked room or in a manner that ensures its reasonable and sufficient safekeeping.
- 52. Items left in a vehicle must be placed or covered in a manner that they do not attract attention. When leaving the vehicle, all windows and the sun roof must be closed, doors locked and anti-theft devices must be switched on.
- 53. Items must not be left in the vehicle overnight.
- 54. Items that were located in the open or tarp-covered box of a vehicle, unlocked roof box, luggage box or luggage bag of a motorcycle shall not be subject to indemnification.
- 55. Bicycles must be locked with a lock to a solid basis.
- 56. The following items must be under uninterrupted and direct surveillance of the insured, in the safe or guarded storage room of an accommodation provider:
 - 56.1. electronic devices;
 - 56.2. weapons;
 - 56.3. musical instruments;
 - 56.4. valuables, watches, works of art and antiquities;
 - 56.5. collections;
 - 56.6. identity documents, visas, vaccination records.
- 57. Items listed in the previous article must be transported in hand luggage. They must not be given for transportation in the luggage room of an aircraft, ship, bus or train, or left in an unattended vehicle. Firearms and musical instruments may be transported outside the hand luggage according to the rules established by the carrier.

INDEMNIFICATION OF LUGGAGE DAMAGES

58. If it is reasonable to repair the damaged item, If shall indemnify the cost of repairs. If shall not be obliged to arrange the restoration of the property.
59. If the luggage has been stolen, robbed, lost through the fault of the transportation company or repairing it is not reasonable, If shall indemnify the market value of the item in Estonia.
60. If the market value of the item cannot be determined, the indemnity shall be determined on the basis of the purchase price of the item. Decrease in the value of the item in time shall be deducted from the purchase price at the rate of 10-30% of the purchase price per year.
61. If If has indemnified the luggage and the luggage is found, the policyholder must notify If of the finding of the luggage at the first opportunity.
62. In case of indemnification If shall have the right to request transfer of the remains of the items or the replaced items or the right to request. Until transfer, If shall have the right to suspend payment of the indemnity or decrease the indemnity by the market value of the remains of the items or replaced items.

INDEMNITY LIMITS

63. If shall indemnify up to 50% of the luggage insurance sum insured for one item (indemnity limit for one item). The aforementioned indemnity limit shall not be valid for indemnifying the suitcase and travel bag.
EXAMPLE. A tablet that cost €400 euros was robbed from the insured. Luggage insurance sum insured is €640. If shall indemnify €320 for the tablet, which is 50% of the sum insured.
64. Indemnity limit for obtaining a replacement document for an identity document, visa or vaccination record shall be €100.
65. Indemnity limit for the absolutely necessary items in the event of lateness of luggage shall be 50% of the luggage insurance sum insured.

ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY ITEMS IN LATE LUGGAGE

66. If the luggage is delayed in a foreign country through the fault of the transportation company by more than 4 hours, If shall indemnify the cost of purchasing or renting the items that are absolutely necessary for the trip that were in the delayed luggage. If shall not pay indemnity for medicines, food, drink and tobacco products.
67. If shall not pay for the absolutely necessary items that were purchased in Estonia or the country of residence of the insured.
68. If shall not pay indemnity for the absolutely necessary items if the luggage was delayed on the way to Estonia or upon the arrival of the insured to the country of permanent residence of the insured.

ACTIONS IN CASE OF LUGGAGE DAMAGES

69. If luggage damages occur, the party responsible (transportation company, hotel etc.) must be contacted first and an application for the compensation of damages must be submitted.
70. If luggage is delayed, evidence must be submitted regarding the lateness of luggage and the invoices on purchasing or renting of absolutely necessary items.
71. If luggage damages were caused through the fault of transportation, accommodation company or any other provider of storage services, certificate issued by that company with the reasons for the luggage damages must be submitted to If.
72. The police shall be immediately informed of the theft or robbery of luggage. The police certificate regarding the circumstances of the event must be submitted to If.
73. If shall have the right to request submission of additional evidence, such as invoices for the repairs of items, photos, additional explanations etc.

TRAVEL INTERRUPTION INSURANCE

74. Travel interruption shall be cancellation of the trip, travel interruption related to the means of transportation or trip interruption caused by the reasons described below.
75. In the event of travel interruption insurance event, If shall indemnify the costs set out in the insurance terms and conditions if they have been incurred for the insured, irrespective of who incurred the costs.
76. If several persons have incurred costs jointly, for example, five friends rented a house, upon calculating the indemnity, If shall rely on the fact that the jointly made costs are divided equally between the participants.

CANCELLATION OF A TRIP

77. Insurance cover for the cancellation of a trip shall apply additionally before the beginning of the insurance period, but a waiting period shall be valid for the cover for the cancellation of a trip, which shall be 3 days from the date of formalising the policy with the travel interruption insurance. The cover for the cancellation of a trip shall not be valid until the end of the waiting period.
EXAMPLE. If formalises the policy on 1 May. The cover for the cancellation of a trip shall enter into force on 4 May at 00:00.
78. Cancellation of a trip shall be an insurance event if the insured cannot go on a trip from Estonia or returns to Estonia within 24 hours from the beginning of the insurance period the reasons for it being:
- 78.1. unexpected illness, bodily injury or death of the insured;
- 78.2. unexpected illness, bodily injury or death of the travel companion of the insured with whom they planned to travel;
- 78.3. life-threatening condition, serious bodily injury or death of a person close to the insured;
- 78.4. sudden and unforeseen damages caused to the insured's property in Estonia if the presence of the insured is unavoidable.

NB! Please be sure to read the exclusions.

79. In the case of the cancellation of a trip, If shall indemnify the cost of the unused services related to that trip (transport costs, accommodation, concert tickets etc.) that the service provider does not refund to the insured.

TRAVEL INTERRUPTION RELATED TO MEANS OF TRANSPORTATION

80. Travel interruption insurance event related to means of transportation shall be unavoidable deviation from travel plan as a result of the following events:
- 80.1. delay or cancelled departure of scheduled service route transport, charter flight or coach as a result of changes in the schedule, provided that the ticket for the delayed or cancelled transport had already been purchased or booked;
- 80.2. missing a scheduled service route transportation due to over-booking, provided that the ticket for the means of transportation had already been purchased or booked;
- 80.3. vehicle participating in a traffic accident;
- 80.4. breaking of a tyre of a vehicle;
- 80.5. emergency landing of an aircraft;
- 80.6. delayed luggage outside Estonia through the fault of the transportation company.
81. If shall not indemnify if the travel interruption related to the means of transportation was caused by a circumstance not listed above, such as incorrectly planned travel schedule etc.

NB! Please be sure to read the exclusions.

82. In case of travel interruption related to means of transportation, If shall indemnify the additional reasonable transportation and accommodation costs necessary for continuing the trip. Other costs shall not be indemnified.
83. If a travel interruption insurance event related to means of transportation occurs within 24 hours from the beginning of the insurance period and the insured does not wish to continue travelling, If shall indemnify the cost of the unused services related to this trip, which is not refunded to the insured.

TRIP INTERRUPTION

84. Trip interruption shall be an insurance event if the insured must return from the trip before the scheduled time as a result of the following events that occur during a trip that takes place during the insurance period:

- 84.1. life-threatening condition, serious bodily injury or death of a family member who travels together with the insured or a travel companion;
- 84.2. life-threatening condition, serious bodily injury or death of a person close to the insured who is in Estonia;
- 84.3. sudden and unforeseen damages caused to the insured's property in Estonia if the presence of the insured is unavoidable;
- 84.4. robbery, theft, destruction of or damages to the identity document, visa or vaccination record of the insured.
85. Trip interruption insurance event shall not be the interruption of a trip due to the fact that the insured fell ill, sustained a bodily injury or died during the trip. The conditions for indemnification are set out in the chapter concerning medical assistance insurance.

NB! Please be sure to read the exclusions.

86. In case of trip interruption insurance event, If shall indemnify the additional transportation and accommodation costs that were incurred in a foreign country in relation to returning to Estonia. Other costs shall not be indemnified.

TRIP INTERRUPTION DUE TO EVACUATION

87. Trip interruption shall be an insurance event if the insured is evacuated to Estonia as a result of the following events that occur during a trip that takes place during the insurance period:
 - 87.1. war, armed conflict, terrorism, mass disorder or any other extensive violation of public order;
 - 87.2. natural disaster;
 - 87.3. pandemic.
88. In case of the aforementioned insurance event, If shall indemnify additional transportation or accommodation costs that were incurred in a foreign country in relation to returning to Estonia within 14 days from the occurrence of the event indicated in Article 87. Other costs shall not be indemnified.
89. If shall not arrange evacuation of the insured. Evacuation shall take place according to the instructions of the local authorities or Estonian Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
90. If shall not indemnify damages or costs if an event that caused the evacuation started before the insured arrived in the crisis area where the event indicated in Article 87 occurred.
91. If the Estonian Ministry of Foreign Affairs has published information or recommendations for avoiding an area or a country and the insured travelled there after the information was disclosed, If shall not pay indemnity.

ACTIVITIES IN CASE OF TRAVEL INTERRUPTION

92. In case of travel interruption, the providers of services related to the trip must be notified without delay in order to request refund for the advance payment or compensation of additional damages related to the interruption.
93. Evidence on the occurrence of the insurance event must be submitted to If, e.g. certificate from an air carrier regarding the delayed flight, medical certificate regarding illness and diagnosis etc. Furthermore, evidence on costs related to the insurance event must be submitted to If.
94. If shall have the right to request presentation of additional evidence, e.g. a certificate on the time stayed abroad, previous health file etc.

ACCIDENT INSURANCE

95. Accident insurance event shall be an accident that has occurred to the insured in a foreign country in the insurance validity area during the insurance period, as a result of which:
 - 95.1. the insured dies within up to three years after the occurrence of the accident;
 - 95.2. the insured sustains permanent disability within one year after the occurrence of the insurance event.
96. Death or permanent disability caused as a result of an illness shall not be an insurance event.

NB! Please be sure to read the exclusions.

DEATH INDEMNITY

97. The amount of the death indemnity shall be the sum insured of accident insurance indicated on the policy. Death indemnity is paid to the successors of the insured. If the insured dies later than within three years, the death indemnity is not paid.
98. Death indemnity is decreased by the permanent disability indemnity paid previously for the same insurance event.

PERMANENT DISABILITY INDEMNITY

99. If shall pay the insured an indemnity for permanent disability if the health status of the insured has permanently deteriorated as a result of an insurance event and one year after the insurance event corresponds to the table below.

| INDEMNITY LIMIT | DESCRIPTION OF HEALTH STATUS |
|-----------------|---|
| 25% | For most part, the person does not require assistance, but his or her capacity has diminished: loss of memory, impaired speech, difficulties in communicating, decreased accuracy of movements, imbalance, fatigue etc. |
| 50% | The person is able to perform only light and short-term activities. His or her capacity has diminished significantly. Therefore, he or she significantly depends on the help of another person to perform some daily activities (e.g. eating, washing, clothing, moving inside or outside one's home etc.). |
| 100% | The person requires inevitable assistance of another person for all daily activities (e.g. eating, clothing, moving in a room, washing etc.). |

100. For the purposes of the insurance contract, existence and degree of permanent disability caused by an insurance event shall be determined a year after the occurrence of the insurance event based on the health condition of the insured at that moment.
101. Upon determining permanent disability, the health status of the insured is compared against the health status of a healthy person of the same age, taking into account only the severity and nature of the disability, not the individual characteristics of the insured, such as lifestyle, job or hobbies. Loss of capacity for work or loss of income shall not be taken into account upon determining the disability. The degree of permanent disability determined by the decision of medical expertise shall not be binding for If for determining permanent disability.
102. Permanent disability is determined based on medical documents. Indemnity for permanent disability is paid as a percentage of the accident insurance sum insured.
103. If shall not pay an indemnity for permanent disability:
- 103.1. in case of damages to the teeth or dentures of the insured;
- 103.2. if permanent disability becomes evident later than a year after the occurrence of the insurance event;
- 103.3. if the insured dies as a result of the insurance event within one year from the day of the occurrence of the insurance event.

LIABILITY INSURANCE

104. Liability insurance event shall be an unexpected and sudden event that occurred in a foreign country in the insurance validity area during the validity of the insurance, as a result of which direct material damage was caused to the injured party for which the insured is responsible on the basis of the law.
105. Injured party shall be the person to whom the insured caused direct material damage.
106. Injured parties shall not be the travel companions or family members of the insured or insured persons indicated on the same policy. Damages caused to these persons shall not be indemnified.
107. If shall indemnify the direct material damages caused to the insured as a result of the insurance event and the costs of legal assistance related to the insurance event, which are necessary for solving the claim for the direct material damages submitted to the insured.

NB! Please be sure to read the exclusions.

ACTIVITIES IN CASE OF LIABILITY INSURANCE

108. If a claim for indemnities is submitted to the insured or circumstances appear that may be the basis for a claim, such as causing of damages, If must be contacted immediately and actions must be taken according to the instructions given by If. 197. The persons entitled to the indemnity shall be the insured or the company that provided service to the insured, such as travel agency, medical institution etc.

198. If indemnification depends on circumstances identified during judicial or pre-trial proceedings, If shall have the right to make the decision to indemnify or refuse to indemnify after the proceedings have been suspended or terminated.

BREACH OF THE INSURANCE CONTRACT

199. Should If delay with indemnifying, If shall pay a fine for delay according to the Law of Obligations Act.

200. If the insured or policyholder have breached the insurance contract, including the safety requirements, If shall have the right to decrease the indemnity or refuse to pay the indemnity, unless foreseen differently in the Law of Obligations Act.

201. If shall have the right to reclaim the indemnity partially or fully if If has discovered the breach of the insurance contract only after paying the indemnity.

202. The policyholder is responsible for the behaviour of the following persons: the insured, family members living together with the insured, legal possessor of the insured property, as well as the person to whom the legal possessor has voluntarily transferred the possession. The policyholder shall be obliged to explain to the aforementioned persons the requirements arising from the insurance contract.

203. If the persons set out in the previous article have failed to perform the requirements of the insurance contract, it shall be considered that the policyholder has breached the contract.

CONCLUSION OF THE INSURANCE CONTRACT

204. Upon the conclusion of the contract, the policyholder shall be obliged to notify If of any circumstances that may influence If's decision to conclude the contract or on the scope of the insurance cover. Upon the conclusion of the insurance contract, If shall rely on the data disclosed by the policyholder.

205. If shall issue the policy that shall constitute an offer for the conclusion of the insurance policy. The terms and conditions for the conclusion and entry into force of the insurance contract are indicated on the policy.

206. The policyholder shall agree with the insurance contract by paying the insurance premium within the term indicated on the policy.

207. The insurance contract consists of the policy, insurance terms and conditions as well as other documents referred to on the policy. The right and obligations set out in different documents shall be valid together without being mutually exclusive.

208. Any previous expressions of will, actions or agreements made by If and policyholder shall not be considered as a part of the insurance contract.

209. In case of disputes the Estonian text of the insurance contract shall prevail.

210. If shall have the right to issue a copy of the policy to the insured.

SENDING NOTICES

211. The policyholder shall send notices to If by email, If's e-office or by post.

212. If shall send notices to the policyholder and/ or insured by email, post or text message. If shall use the email or postal address, or telephone number indicated on the policy or person's homepage or otherwise informed to If.

213. If shall consider the person from whose email address the email has been sent as the sender if such address has been indicated in the documents of the insurance contract, on the persons' homepage or notified to If in any other manner.

IF'S OBLIGATION TO NOTIFY THE POLICYHOLDER

214. Should If's name or legal form, address or insurance supervisory body's address change, If shall notify the policyholder thereof on If's homepage or mass media.

POLICYHOLDER'S OBLIGATION TO NOTIFY IF

215. If the data submitted to If prove to be incorrect or deficient during the insurance period, the policyholder must notify If thereof at the first opportunity.

216. If shall have the right to rely on the data submitted on the insured, insurance object and risk in insurance contracts concluded in the future.

EXPIRY AND TERMINATION OF THE INSURANCE CONTRACT

217. The insurance contract expires on the last day of the insurance period.

218. The insurance contract can be terminated in the cases set out in the law or insurance contract.

219. If the policyholder or If wants to terminate the contract after a decision on a case has been made, they shall inform the other party to the contract thereof within 31 days from making of the decision. The contract is considered terminated after 31 days from receiving the aforementioned notice.

SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

220. If wishes to settle the insurance disputes mainly through negotiations. If no agreement is reached, the dispute is settled in court or with the help of insurance conciliator. The insurance conciliator can be contacted through the Estonian Insurance Association (www.eksl.ee, Mustamäe tee 46, Tallinn 10621). If must participate in the conciliation proceedings. The conciliation procedure is free of charge. Before contacting the insurance conciliator, a claim must be filed with If.
